Hey guys!

I am looking for both male and female around my age 18-26 that is responsible, clean, talkative and friendly.

My budget is around 550, and I am sure that for that amount of money we can rent very nice place. I'm going to LA in August 17 to live, study and work as freelancer.

About me:

I am 20yo straight male originally from Brazil.

I am clean, responsible, talkative, funny, and friendly.

Also, I am a huge fan of series.

And when it comes to music, I'm listening almost everything.

I do not smoke, but I don't mind living with somebody who smokes outside.

I keep to myself, won't cause drama, and I can accommodate your particular preferences. I just ask that we keep the drama to a minimum and that we stay cool

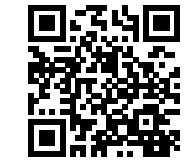

I would like to search for something in Hollywood, DT, Santa Monica, Culver city, Venice...

If you think that we can be good friends/roommates feel free to email me or text me anytime my facebook link is: <https://www.facebook.com/yagoauad>

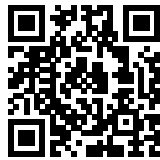

and my phone number is +558591840652 (imessage)
if you want your room with something like this
