I have two friends who are in desperate need of a place to stay for a week. The girl they were staying with is going out of town, and I just don't have the space in my apartment to put them up for that space of time. They have a 10 month old son and are being faced with sleeping in their car for a week with the baby if they can't find somewhere to go. I can pass any information to them and hopefully keep them out of a very unsafe situation, especially in this Louisiana heat with their son. If there are any good Samaritans out there who can help out, I'm sure they would be the most grateful two people on the planet. They can both produce character references, both from myself and the girl they have been staying with. They are really just down on their luck and haven't caught a break in a long while. They definitely don't deserve all the things they've been going through lately, and I think we've all been there one time or another. Please contact me by email, phone, or text, and I will get back with you ASAP. The dates needed would be July 16th (morning) -July 24th (morning). If you don't want to deal with houseguests, they can be out of the house and your hair all day. They really just need somewhere safe to sleep. They will also deal with their own food and such. They would probably be able to supply some groceries in lieu of money as.
