Compensation: Up to $700 per family/student per academic year plus incentives.

Work with exchange students from all over the world! Ayusa is hiring Community Representatives in Rhode Island/Mass.

Ayusa is a non-profit high school student exchange organization. We welcome close to 1000 students from over 60 countries for academic year and semester homestays with American host families.

Ayusa is seeking community-involved people, mentors, parents and educators to act as Community Representatives (CR).

This is a flexible, part time, telecommuting position designed to supply supplemental income only. The best candidates are volunteer minded, connected, enjoy cultural exposure and love teens.

Qualified candidates have strong networking skills and are connected to the community. They have a strong interest in cross-cultural education or have experience as an exchange student or host family.

They have a volunteer spirit and a flexible, positive attitude.

Responsibilities include:

Identify schools where we can place our students and obtain necessary permissions for our students to attend.

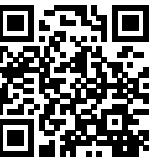

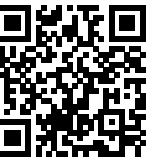

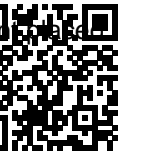

Help recruit host families through local networking and outreach.

Conduct in-home interviews with potential host families.

Act as the primary support and guide to students and families during the program.

Our CRs provide extra support, including training and support to host families, and compensation for their time and expenses. We also offer financial incentives for CRs who refer students.
