We're a group of American English teachers seeking new students. We provide lessons online by Skype and specialize in adult learners. We are looking to find recruiters who can bring more students to us.

We are offering to pay a commission of $1 for every lesson that a student signs up for for the length of their time with the group. In other words, if a student signs up and takes only 5 classes, you receive $5. If a student signs up and takes 100 classes, you will receive $100. Pay will be ongoing for the length of the time the student is with us. We also offer editing services for resumes/CV's, cover letters, university papers, etc. For these projects, you will get a one off commission based on the overall cost of the project. Or, if you too are in need of English lessons/services, we can provide free lessons per student that you sign up.

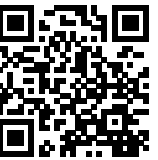

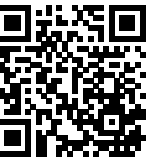

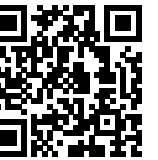

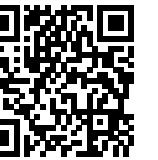

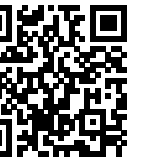

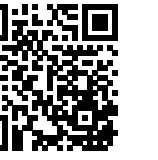

The types of students we are looking for from you:
 Business professionals, university students, adults or high school students training for English exams (IELTS, TOEFL, etc.), adults looking to improve for travel, etc. We can accommodate and tailor lessons for any student.

Students that you find will be offered one free trial lesson. After such, if they decide to continue, you will receive payments for each lesson paid.

Payments will be done via Paypal weekly/monthly, depending on your preference.
