Offering to pay people to take care of an aggressive dog in your home. This dog is owned by a family and you will not be pressured to adopt the dog. You will be asked to take care of a dog in your home for three days. In some cases, a one day and night stayover will work. Training will be provided. The dog is a medium sized pit bull. He is aggressive towards strangers.

This dog needs more exposure to different people so that he can become better adjusted.

I am a dog trainer and one of my client's has a fearful aggressive dog that hasn't met enough new people. Your job will be to feed them, take them out on walks, or take them to a nature setting (like a park or trail).

If you enjoy doing this, I will be able to find you new dogs to take care of after the three day period is over. Less than a three day stayover is acceptable

I am looking for people that do not have a dog in their home. That way the dog will get to interact with new humans. Its very important that you will be able to take the dog to your home. Staying over at the dog owner's home will not help the dog to adjust.

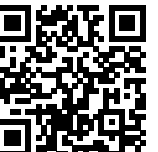

Please respond with your full legal name; the neighborhood that you live in; which days of the week you are available; and something about who you are. Do you have your own transportation? Not required, but good to know. Please have some references and past experience with dogs.

Include your email and your phone number.

You will be provided with all the dog's necessities (food, leash, bowls, toys, etc.)

If this ad is still up, I am still accepting applicants.

The pay is $80 dollars per day /.
