What I do not understand is the reluctance of the west, to go and send these scum back to the stone age? Why? Because, O, the muslim, is on their side and the media covers for him. So no, the west will not be defending civilization anytime soon. The evil of islam is beyond description and stupid people still call this a religion!!!

I suggest one tactical nuke for each Isis site identified. Any collateral damage will be far far less than the numbers Isis are killing now.

And if any western country`s Muslim population take to the streets in violent protest, and endanger anyone, meet them with full force.

Its time for the west to learn from Israel. If the Muslims bring a knife to the fight, bring a machine gun.

If they cannot behave in any decent civilised manner towards others, let them be treated the same way.

End of fucking story.
