2007 Dodge Caliber R/T - $5850 (Laurel)

94,XXX miles

All Wheel Drive (AWD), 4 Door with Hatchback. Automatic Transmission.
The R/T is the AWD model, keep that in mind if you are purchasing a Caliber in MD. Remember last winter?

Silver.

Reliable vehicle for everyday driver. It's well priced too.

Clean Title. In hand.

This is the R/T version (the better version). If you are shopping for a Caliber, I recommend you look up the differences online. The R/T is an "upgrade" plainly stated (versus SXT SE). Bigger engine (2.4L). CVT2 Transmission. All wheel drive. Etc Etc. That's why it's priced higher FYI.

New tires (4) in 2013. Cost about 600 bucks. Will show you receipt. Only have about 10k miles on them.
