Ok this is jeremy aka TheBoaGuy here on the ss of indy.
1st the turtles I have are not indigenous to indiana and they are well over 4".
2nd these are yellow bellied sliders from florida and are all adults 8"+They go for 40.00+ each in store.
3rd If you want to trade I am only looking for other turtles over 4" that you cannot find in Indiana. As long as they are not under 4" and not indigenous to indiana it's completely within the law for me to buy or trade or rehome them.

That being said I had a friend move to Florida and left me with 5 awesome yellow bellied sliders all 6yrs old plus. I'm keeping them. I love them, but after people found out I had them I started getting people asking if I could buy their turtles or take them or foster them. Now I have 10. 10 turtles isn't a problem but I want some variety. So I'm looking to trade the other 4 or rehome them so I can add a little color to the pond.

If you have turtles and are looking to possibly add a bright yellow guy hit me up or if you want something different that's fine too. As always I have some incredible boas I can always hook you up with as well. Other things I'm always interested in are baby gators and caiman snakes of all types emphasis on boas all morphs

Jeremy aka TheBoaGuy

Oh and as always here's some cool bo
