Hi I am in need of someone to take care of my one year old shih tzu named Cinnamon for a whole month (from July 28 to August 26) since I will be going on vacation. I have searched information about boarding and kennel but the costs are very price and I don't feel like they would give him the attention he needs. He knows some of the basic commands such as sit, lay down and go to your bed. He is potty trained and rarely has accidents he is very active and loves playing with squeaky toys (he especially loves taking people socks and running away to play with them). He also has a weird addiction with earphones if he sees them lying around he will chew them up in seconds. He loves when you scratch his tummy and cuddle with him and will sometimes even bark at you if you are not paying attention to him. Sorry I'm rambling I would just like to give you a little information about my puppy before you text to know what you are getting into because I'm not gonna lie he is a hand full but he is full of love. I will be providing you with his food, dog bowls, toys, treats, bed, crate and leash the only thing you would need to give him is your love and attention. I have no price so text me your offers of how much you would charge for taking care of my puppy for the whole month and I will get back to you. You can text me at
