I'm looking for someone to give tuition to my son. He is French and has a basic comprehension of English. He will go to 10th grade in September. I'm looking for someone who could come during the rest of the summer (something between 30min and 1 hour a day) to assess him and provide tuition where needed and as appropriate. If interested, i would like to continue to provide some further tuition during the rest of the school year. Please include some element of your curriculum as well as how much you are looking for.

Ideally, I am looking for someone who could come to my place and possibly in the afternoon. My son could travel if very close.
