I have a sweet love able housebroken terrier mix she is absolutely wonderful loves to snuggle loves to play loves riding in the car she knows how to sit and stay she is leash trained and we walk daily she does ok in the bath but her favorite part is being wrapped up in the towel and blow dried she is very patient and has no problem being brushes and her toes painted she will defently want to sleep with you ad follow you everywhere she has been around other dogs and cats also around kids would do better in a home with older kids. She is about a year has had flea and tick prevention and utd on shots and was wormed last week. She is about 4.5-5 lbs and won't be any bigger I am asking a $40.00 rehoming fee please email me for pics can meet if not to far
