Hey! Looking for a drummer to join an electric rock duo. I am a 25 Guitarist/Bassist and Lead vocalist with plenty of experience in Performing, writing and recording. I have my own practice space and gear in SE Portland. Just need a partner on drums who could also help in the writing process and vocals if you want, hopefully who owns a kit, if not maybe willing to help find one.

Looking to play high energy and fun rock n roll while also being creative in writing and not stuck in the past or on one genre in specific.

Possibly add a third member down the road, but for now want to keep it simple.

Message, text or email if you're interested, would like to start soon, can send you sample of music I've done if you would like to hear.
