One of a kind dress from Ray Gardner Designs. Ray told me himself that nobody else will have this exact dress so don't worry about anyone stealing your spotlight! Beautiful black prom gown with crushed Swarovski crystals creating a leopard pattern at the bottom. Intricate lacework on the top. Sweet heart neck line, fitted on top and flare on the bottom. It has about 5 layers creating a unique style and look. Includes matching sash.

Size 2. I am 120 lbs and 5ft 4in and it fits me with a little room to spare, I also have wider hips and a thin waist. If youre about my height you could wear up to 6in heels without them showing.

Stored away from pets in a dress bag, smoke free home, worn once, in perfect condition.

Originally purchased for about $600, it could be yours for around $350

Contact me if youre interested, I also have a blue princess style dress that you may like.

I will allow you to try either on before you buy it as long as you allow someone else to zipper it for you. (To prevent tearing).
