Black Jack is a stunning 4 year old boy who is up for adoption/foster. Black Jack is presently at True Companion Training/boarding facility in Damascus Pa. Black Jack, who is called Black, by his handlers at True Companion, would need an experienced handler. Black would benefit with a strong pack leader who would enjoy being up for a challenge testing their own abilities as his leader.

Being professionally trained, Black Jack knows his commands well, he is very smart. His possibilities are endless. He can test the waters, though, so having a leader that he can respect and look up to will make him thrive and shine. Black Jack should be in an environment that is low key and calming to him.

Black Jack would do best in a home as an only pet. If children are in the home it is recommended that they be older teenagers who are mindful and respectful of him. Black Jack is a good boy with an abundance of potential to continue to prosper . Black Jack is neutered and up to date on his shots. A meet and Greet at True Companion would be necessary requiring some handling sessions making sure there is a good fit for all.
