I am an enthusiast/hobbyist photographer who frequently visits Ed Zorinski Lake. I mainly take nature/macro shots. However after many request from passer by joggers I am offering a free photo to anyone that is interested. I am no professional however it would be beneficial for anyone interested and myself so that I can refine my skills. I have the latest professional gear and simply enjoy taking photos.

I'm still working on trying to figure out how to transmit photos to individuals safely without concerns of privacy. Yet this is purely up to the subject in the photo. I'm typically at zorinski every Saturday morning or afternoon with my gear and stick out like a sore thumb. If you are interested and are nearby I'll be there as usual. You can get a nice solo/dog/couple shot near the lake, or whatever else you think would be cool. The photo would be yours, no photo rights issues are even necessary.

This may or may not be a limited time thing based upon the reception I get. However I cannot foresee myself charging people for anything since I am just an enthusiast. I also use Adobe lightroom & photoshop to process my photos.

Email me if you are interested at all,
