YES, TRUMP CAN WIN
Media, GOP Establishment made same attacks on Reagan.

By Jeffrey Lord

The GOP Establishment assures: Donald Trump can't possibly win.

So. Here we are again.

Is Donald Trump Ronald Reagan? Unless the Almighty has changed His ways and started duplicating human souls, no. All of God's children are unique etc., etc., etc. Both men were and are uniquely talented with their own set of gifts and flaws.

But while Donald Trump is not Ronald Reagan, without doubt the rationale of their respective political opponents in the media and the Establishment wing of the Republican Party is almost literally identical. In some cases right down to a literal word or phrase.

The real question here? Why, exactly, is that?

The answer to that question is, in fact, very simple.

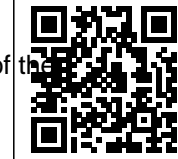

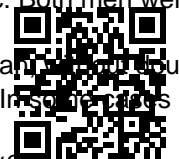

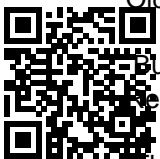

Ronald Reagan was, and Donald Trump is, a threat. A threat to the power of the "Ruling Class" Establishment, of the status quo and most of all to that Establishment's Old World Order. en are unique etc. etc., etc. Both men were and are uniquely talented with their own set of gifts and flaws.
