I have to sell my side business and spend more time with the family. Basically I buy products and sell them for more on amazon and ebay. Very simple, but time consuming. I have a 5 month old and my wife is going back to work, so there is no need for me to spend countless hours uploading photos and writing content and what not.

2 Options

#1.... $200

Buy all my current supplies/products and sell them as you wish. ( most items sell for $10-30 and I think I currently have around 20-30 depending on what sells this week) For an example, I have 2 products here that cost on amazon.com $32.99 each! list them on eBay for $30 and you got sales!

#2... $500

Buy all my supplies and my business networks on "how to" and "where to" get these products. and also On going support for 1 week if you need it. I wouldn't give you my business if you were jsut going to screw it up. So if you are serious about starting to sell on ebay or amazon and make some real part time money. let me know.

$200 for everything i got
I have everything i got my bus
