I lost my wallet at the Liquid Planet located on Clifton Blvd in Cleveland (West 117th area). It is very, VERY important that I find it, as it holds (literally) my entire life. You might ask, "who losses something SO important to them?" However, accidents happen, and I have been trying very hard to locate it. I don't need the cash inside, and I don't think my gift cards are even valid. I would just be incredibly grateful to have the rest of my belongings back. My identity is literally gone without them, and I have worked very hard for a lot of the things inside that wallet.

It is a medium sized, red, leather wallet with a floral design. My name is Kelly, and I am so desperate to find my stuff. If you have any information, please respond to this post.

I don't have very much money, so I cannot offer a monetary reward. I do, however, give really good hugs, I can tell a great joke, and you are sure to have some GREAT karma coming' your way if you find it in your heart to return my:]!
