Hello everyone I have an AKC champion bloodline 25% European harlequin Great Dane up for mating/stud to approved bitches. He is 160-170 pounds and standing at 33-34 inches at shoulder. He has amazing conformation and carries for blue, as well as having a protective and stunning personality, a total lover. He has had all of his health testing done as well as fertility tested and a proven breeder that has thrown amazing pups. I own him on co own so his stud fee is set but there are 2 options for stud fee. Bitch MUST have a brucellosis test done and test negative before breeding will be considered. Feel free to contact me if interested. I don't care about those who want to tells I'm a horrible person for offering him up for stud, or craigslist rules ect ect, and if you feel like flagging, go ahead your doing me a favor by keeping my post at the top because

I will just keep reposting. I can send pics of him and can answer any questions about him. Email or text at 920-three42
