The idiot that didn't mention how many years where "controlled by democrats in the house and Senate" when mentioning the stupid stuff done by republican presidents is because it wasn't relevant to the stupid crap Reagan and Bush Jr did during their white house tours.

The house and senate do not control the presidency or what any administration does during their time in the white house!!

The point being made originally was Reagan administration through the Reagan White House sold weapons to Iran, Iraq funded dictators in south america through the Iran/Contra.

Democrats in the house or Senate had nothing to do with the Reagan white house that was Oliver North who later became the fall guy, and I might add retained full retirement, no jail time, no punishment or consequence so I say the administration.
