You can sing. You love singing soul, blues, gospel, ragtime, swamp, funk, bluejazz, and contemporary material rendered in those genres. You're ambitious and fun loving and may even have originals you'd like to do. You want to gig in about 6 weeks. You want to kill every song and maybe get a few bucks for it. You want to put a light on a hill.

I can play acoustic guitar (fingerstyle, mostly) and sing. I have fun killing every song and maybe getting a few bucks for it. I'm ambitious, have some chops, can follow and lead. I'll be courteous and fun and non-judgmental. I'll be gigging regularly in about six weeks. I can do it alone, but a duet with equal responsibilities is more to my liking.

Serious responses will get a complete song list and links. Send?
