I am working with a new client looking for 3 to 4 body art models to spend the week of August 30th - Sept 7th at the burning man festival in Nevada. She has a couple body paint and tattoo artist book to showcase their work. The models will walk around and enjoy the festival wearing body paint and referring people to my clients area. Pay is $100.00 per day plus food, etc. If this sounds like something you will be interested in feel free to contact me to set up a TF photoshoot. Photoshoots will be reviewed by client and a second shoot will be scheduled for $100.00 to be done wearing body paint to use for promotional materials. Some nudity might be required but you will be wearing body paint over important areas. If intetested send current pictures or link to portfolio. All model types accepted. Going for more of a look and personality than experience..
