Hello,

At THINK Hypnosis I provide mind problem clearing. I can erase any mental problem you may have that is causing your life to spiral out of control and usually in less than 2 hours depending on what the problem is. I charge a fair price and my techniques work on any problem. Massage does make your muscles feel better and more relaxed but does it clear up things like a social phobia, or trying to quit smoking, or help with weight loss, or help you to stop drinking, will it wipe out job anxiety, or will it stop you from having insomnia?

For that matter will Reiki, Cuddling, massage, aromatherapy or most of those other things do what I say I can do with Hypnotherapy, I say no and I can prove it. Don't get me wrong they are good for certain things like stress or muscle soreness but they will not eliminate a life altering problem for good like Hypnotherapy and the other techniques that I use to help people change their lives. Check out my website and see where I practice, what techniques I use and how much I charge.

If you feel you need what I have to offer please go to my website and contact me: www.thinkhypnosis
