I provide one-on-one tutoring for students of all ages from grade school through college and beyond.
 My objective is not only to improve my students' grades but also to help each student master the skills necessary to learn the subject on their own while improving their academic performance.

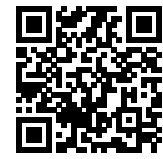

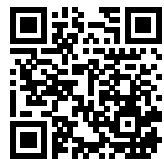

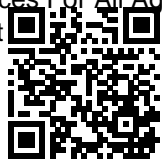

What I Do:

I understand the importance of developing students' study and test preparation skills while keeping my clients motivated positive thinkers.I offer a full range of academic and counseling services including math, language arts, social sciences, science, essay writing, foreign languages, college admission and standardized test preparation.

What I Offer

- * In Home Tutoring
- * Free Consultation
- * Reasonable Rates
- * Standardized Test Preparation
- * I am a Certified State Teacher
- * Special Education Services
- * Group Sessions for Reduced Rates

* Foreign Language Services For All Ages
 Great About Me

I offer customized lesson plans tailored around each student's individual needs. I differentiate myself from the competition not only because of my wide array of services but because I don't have an ideological set of teaching methods like other tutoring companies. After consulting with the students and their families to find the appropriate approach I design the lesson plan based on each student's situation and need.
