Probably a long shot but awhile back I lost a very important sentimental silver chain necklace with a silver cross, my mother gave it to me about 10years ago and it means the world to me. If you found it, bought it from someone or somewhere or know of it's whereabouts I would greatly appreciate getting it back, I will pay double what you paid for it if you bought it from somewhere/someone. This is the only picture I can find of it so please if you have it or know where it is PLEASE let me know thank.
