If you are currently satisfied with your job search results, then you probably don't need our help. Whom you choose to write your resume is an important decision that will impact the impression you make on hiring managers and the salary level you can negotiate. This industry is not government-regulated and the background of resume writers can span from administrative support to business professional to recruiter to career counselor. It is not an overstatement to say that a well prepared resume can literally change lives. When you represent yourself to employers with an outstanding resume it impacts the quality and quantity of jobs and companies you attract. The positive impact on a job search is nothing short of remarkable. If you can agree to all this and want a fast turnaround time, then Penmen Resumes can help you at $75 for a chronological and $75 for a functional resume. Veterans get a $20 discount with valid VA card or DD-214. Send name, city, phone number, email, skills and qualifications, work history with employer, job title, dates with month/year and education level. Please reply in email to get started or visit our website: <http://www.penmenresumes.wix.com>
