3 piece punk/rock band looking for a 2nd guitar player. We are looking for someone reliable, flexible, can play like a champ, and someone who can fit in with us, (if you're a douche bag then don't bother we don't have time for that). Age isn't much of a problem but preferred 18-25 considering i'm the oldest member and i'm 20, were serious and plan to have big days ahead of us and we need someone who can handle that. Our style is original we play our own songs and I do most of the lyrics. Some influences are Bad Religion, Misfits, Sum 41, Alkaline Trio, Blitzkid, The Clash, Blink-182, NOFX and even some hardcore/metal influences as well, please don't show up with a starter guitar and pocket amp...we have shows coming up, that equipment will not do hahah, hope to have some hits and we can make good music together,
