My name is Brian Cattelle, I'm a south Florida based photographer traveling to Anchorage to do a photoshoot for my project BARE USA. Check out my website at <http://BARE-USA.com> to see that I am a legitimate photographer.

I photograph nude models in abandoned locations and I need to find some transportation to scout out various locations in the area and to do my photo shoot. Car rentals are very expensive and exceed my available budget.

Does anyone have an old car they want to lend me from August 15th to August 20th for $200 total OBO? I don't need a fancy rental anything will do.

I am 33 with my own personal insurance (I don't know if that helps at all). I have a clean driving record and I can provide a number of personal character references and identification.
