If you are headed to small claims court, I can help you. As an attorney I am not permitted to attend your small claims trial because the law prohibits it. I can, however, help you to be prepared in court by explaining the legal issues to you, and by preparing your trial brief and exhibits for the judge. Your trial brief will include applicable legal analysis when necessary, and will persuasively set forth the facts of your case for the judge. I have years of experience preparing motions and briefs for court and have argued and won numerous legal motions over the years. My fee depends on the complexity of your case, but ranges from $250 - $750. We will determine the full amount of you fee ahead of time. Send me an Email now to get the help you need. Include as much detail as you want regarding your case and I will call or email you right away. You may also call me for a free phone consultation.
