If you have been injured in an auto accident, or have slipped and fallen, call me for a free consultation. I have several years of experience working up personal injury cases, and enjoy speaking to prospective clients regarding their rights. In many instances, the insurance of the party at fault is available to pay for your medical expenses. Insurance will also pay for your pain, suffering and emotional distress caused by your injury. My fee is based on a percentage of what I collect for you so there is no fee unless I obtain a recovery. Costs of litigation, however, (like court filing fees, copy costs etc.) do have to be paid by the client, but can may be paid from the settlement proceeds in most instances. Email me or call for a consultation and I will contact you back right away. I hope I can help!
