Hi there, we are a semi-established band (but let's face it, we'd be better with you) with a lockout in Southbay. We consist of a drummer, bassist, and guitarist/vocalist. We're looking for a 2nd guitarist with backup vocal capability (lead vocal capability would be cool too if you've got your own songs or like to write). Must be between 23 and 35 years old, be drug free, have a decent job, have a decent education, and must despise bands like Lenny Kravitz, George Michael, or Phil Collins.

We sound like this: http://thepitchingmachine.com/music/01_Match.mp3 or this (demo quality): <http://thepitchingmachine.com/Matthew/BattleFinale/BattleFinale195.mp3>

We'll throw in an acoustic, pedal steel, violin, or piano or whatever on occasion, so we're not strictly "punk" or whatever these 2 songs sound like to you. We just have a panoply of influences, so we'll play anything that we think is "good."

Our goals are to record the "good" stuff that we write, and play shows that make a bunch of people stoked to be there.

Please don't respond if you do drugs, want to be paid to play, don't have links to your playing, or think Third Eye Blind is a good.
