Hello. Looking for someone to rehome theses baby hedgehogs I have. I have two white ones with dark eyes (not full albinos with the red eyes) that are males. Just in case, they will be ready for pick up within a week. One of the hedgies has a black spot on his butt, but the other is full white. I just started weening them off their mother a few days ago to make sure they can fend for themselves. My asking price for rehoming is $300 each. If you need to know info on care, please feel free to ask. I want them to go to forever homes that know what to expect, but understand that some questions might arise, SO FEEL FREE TO ASK!!!!

They were born on June 24. 2015 if you want to celebrate bdays for:-)
