I'm a single guy, no kids or pets, with a modern home and busy job. I'm looking to hire someone a couple days a month to help out with house work, minor projects, and errands.

Cleaning & Laundry, making runs to pick stuff up from HD, IKEA, Grocery, Liquor store, etc. But also willing to help with errands.

I'd like to hire per day, and basically keep a to-do list in Google Docs and you review that the day prior, make any stops you need to before arriving, stay busy for 4 or 8 hours (w/ breaks), depending on what works for you, and leave a list of what you got done.

I'd work side by side with you at least the first few times, to help orient you to various tasks.

If interested, reply by email with your qualifications, references, and what amount of compensation you desire. I will pay for or reimburse all consumables and equipment necessary, in addition to your compensation. You'd also be welcome to have meals from my groceries if your duties include restocking.

I intend to choose provider no sooner than Aug 20th, and no later than Sept 5th.

I want you to be happy with your earnings, but I can't afford >$200/220max per.
