Hey everyone I'm starting a 30-day Health and Fitness challenge group on Sept 7th, right after the back to school routine goes into effect and time to get back to routine, and have space for just a few more people! It's going to just be a group of us in the "challenge" for better accountability and support to each other. Want me to send you the details? Drop me a line, I'd love to hear from you :) If you head to my Facebook page, you can check out my personal results after 30 days. Scroll down the page to take a look!
