Pitbul puppy is 12 weeks old and looking for a forever home. She has her first round of shots already. We got her at 9 weeks and our landlord said no large breed so unfortunately our little girl must go. She will come with a bag of food opened, we only used it for her (dog food brand-billjack) it was not cheap food because we planned on getting her big so she's been well fed on a feeding schedule. 2 dishes for food and water. A few toys including 2 stuffed animals, a small rope, and a few bones. A bag of beggin strips opened, and a pound of milk bones. Her name was Nala and she responded well to that, she's still young if you decide to change it. She is not potty trained and knows a couple basic tricks We practiced with her. I've had her around my one year old daughter with supervision. Beautiful dog just needs a nice family to live.
