We have replaced this car with another diesel and this car won't be driven much at all between now and when we sell it. We bought this 3.0L Turbo Diesel back on June 10, 2013 when it had 35,714 mi. It just hit 100k mi. This car was used by me as a highway driving work car and it is designed to run well in the winter. It does a great job in the snowy months. Our last '99 Mercedes Benz Diesel went to 324k mi. This car has never been in an accident or fender bender of any sort and it will present METICULOUSLY. There isn't a scratch on it anywhere and the front or rear bumper hasn't had so much as a fender bender or nudge. The lower portion of the front bumper has never once been scraped, hit a curb, or a snow bank. It's also always been garaged. We just did new Bridgestone tires and a MB "B" service, and it needs absolutely nothing. It's always been serviced at Prime Mercedes-Benz and we have all the records to go along with the car, 3 MB laser cut keys (we had lost one so bought another before finding our lost one so we have three), and all the manuals. We also have the window sticker.

How is it built beyond the "base" price of $51,690 in order to get it to well over $60k?

1. Indium Grey metallic $720
2. Chestnut Brown Leather (special order) $1,620 (E Classes always come with MB Tex (leather "like") but this car was special ordered with REAL Italian leather
3. Split Folding Rear Seats $440
4. Rear Side Airbags $450
5. Heated & Active Ventilated (A/C) front seats $450

6. Power Tilt / Sliding Panorama Sunroof $1,090 	7. Premium Launch Pad $3,600 	8. Navigation, Real-Time Traffic Data, Voice Control, Music Request, Panorama Camera, iGIC7 	9. Special Premium with a 100% Digital 5.1, HD Radio, SiriusXM Satellite Radio, iPod/iPad/USB Media In 	10. iPod/iPad/USB Media In, Rear Camera, Heated/Power Seats, Power Windows, Mirrors, Rear
