Hello everyone,

I am a Generous and very kind. Tall, short hair and very muscular and athletic.

As an executive of a thriving business, I can only get together 2-3 times a month. So this will not cut into your social life or any dating you might be doing. Heck, if we hit it off, I might even let you tap into some good professional connections I have so that your career can get a boost.

Please be in shape, younger than I, and over 18 years of age.

Perhaps I can introduce a new lifestyle if new to you. Live and learn.

Please tell me a little about yourself-where do you live and if you are working. I also would like to know your age and nationality.

I promise you will never meet another guy like me.

Take!
