 Opinion Seekers is conducting a research project to better understand social and legal issues. Please be assured we are not selling anything and your input will be kept confidential.

 The focus groups are taking place in Sarasota on August 22. The groups will last all day from 8:00 - 6:30 and participants will receive $200 for their time and opinions.

 If you are willing to participate in this important research, please click the link below to complete a very brief screener to confirm your eligibility. Once you complete the screener, we will contact you to review some information with you and get you scheduled for the group.
