

23 yo guy looking for room near Redmond Kirkland (900 USD)

Location Washington

I will be moving to the Redmond area to work at Microsoft.

I am in my mid 20's, male, hard working, easy to get along with other people, clean and I'll probably be at working long hours most of the week. I've lived with plenty of roommates before (both male and female) and I've gotten along with all of them.

- Looking to move in on the 20th of August.
- I'm looking to stay for at least one year, more if possible.
- Looking to keep the living situation under 4 roommates. The less the better.
- Looking to keep the rent under $900 or so.
- Don't care if you have a dog or cat.

PLEASE send me pictures of the place, it's the only way I will consider it.
