Hello,

I am looking for a female to model next to my 30 year old classic car. I belong to several blogging posts where we talk cars and share photos of our vehicles. A lot of guys have their girlfriends or wives pose next to "their ride". I am a young 56 but am currently single. I am well mannered, slender musician, and Irish. I can take about 10 -12 photos . You can wear sunglasses to disguise yourself. Tell me what donation I would be looking at as I have never down anything like this. Usually I put my cat on top of the hood ! They have sections called "Rate this photo" and they display it inbetween blogs. I notice that the higher rated photos are ones that have a girl in daisy dukes and a bikini on top win out. If you have any idea of where would be a good loaction to shoot let me know. I was hinking of parking by a nice office building in an industrial park after the workers have gone home or at a park wear there is a lake or nice trees as a background. Thanks and please note that I am not a.
