I purchased this bike last year to start biking. Unfortunately, I am currently unemployed and trying to sell some of my beloved possessions until I find my next job to pay the bills. I purchased this great bike for almost $400.00.

I have a catalog picture of the similar bike; however, this bike is purple and not white. Everything else is the same including the drive train. It is very light-weight. It was easy to pick it up and move it. I only road it once. I had to move to a storage locker after that. If you are interested, please contact me. I would like to get $150.00; however, I will consider all offers.

I have no problem sending a picture for serious buyers. Please be local to pick up the bike. All cash. No checks or money orders. Thank.
