Greetings. My name is Charles Harris, and I am seeking a long term position as a mentor/tutor/governor with a family.

My Credentials: Father of 6. Ex police officer. Current substitute Schoolteacher. Ex Little League Baseball coach. Bachelors of Social Work degree, Southern University, New Orleans. 15 hours and practicum short of Bachelors in Child Psych. Early Childhood Education associates degree earned, but not applied for. Have self-practiced civil law on all three levels. Grandfather of one. Trained in three forms of theraputic interventions; Rage Reduction, Confrontational, and Play. I have 42 years of experience in working with children and families. (Starting at age 14 as a camp counselor.)

My Philosophy: Eriksonian. Children should be allowed to be children, naturally developing and mastering each stage of their developmental milestones. But they should have proper ADULT guidance during the course of said development. Providing a stable, consistent environment is critical to their well-being.

My Operating Principle: "Guide, supervise, teach- but make it look as if you're not!"

Operational Ethic: I am willing to work with any children. There are those parents who are concerned that their children are out-of-control; no problem for me. There are those parents who think that their children are "perfect little angels"- no problem for me. Behavior problems are my specialty- but I have no problems whatsoever working with ANY child or children. I expect parents to be very involved in the process, though- GOD gave your children to YOU, and not to me!

Thoughts: Supernanny is wonderful....television. What happens when she's gone? Where's the consistency that children must have, to grow into emotionally stable adults? Personally, she's brilliant- for that 47 minutes she's on film! Think of me as, "super-MANNY" (LOL)- with the benefits of consistency! I am also just "conceited" enough to think that if I had been present, the world would never have heard of the Columbine shooters!

Work Ethic: I am very old-school in my outlook toward the rearing and supervision of children. This is not to say that I am a Luddite, but there's a time and a place for technology. There's a time and a place to let the kids do the thinking class work, I have to do with up to 10 children at a time. The benefits of experience have been my 56 years, but also being well read and having the WISDOM to be able to be a parent may not be as smart as a 1st Grader, but I am a PARENT, not a 1st GRADER, having to be a PARENT, you give me a child, and I take over a child, and I talk with the parent about it for the child's KNOWLEDGE and stake in the child's life.

Other qualifications: I am also willing to work as your Personal Assistant. I know how to cook, clean, house, and organize. I also have extensive experience in legal research and practice, child development, teaching, published writing- but I am NOT a lawyer. I also am familiar with minor household repairs.

References: I only have one (that I trust to be honest) will admit that I have not done this sort of work since the late 1970s, and most of the people with whom I worked are either grown or dead. Further, as a Social Worker, I am pretty sure that the Ethic of my profession DO NOT allow me to divulge their past family ives and problems. I welcome any background check that you would wish to perform.

Salary Requirements: I will require room and board, $1000 relocation expenses, and $1500/monthly. I am also asking a $200 interview fee, as I will have to travel. This is not, "engraved in stone", but I do believe that there are few people out here in Modern America who are willing to put in the time and effort that it takes to rear stable and self-confident children- and I expect to be compensated for my experience, knowledge, and wisdom.

Thank you for reading this, and I hope to serve you and your family in the future. Feel free to contact me with any other questions you may have. Email users, Please put, "Captains Courageous", in your subject line; as this is Craigslist, I am sure you know that spammers and scammers abound. I can usually tell, but.....
