I am looking to sub-contract between 2-3 hours per day for 1-3 days per week of door-to-door deliveries in the New North End of Burlington. Hours are between 2-6 am daily, Sundays between 4-7:30 am. The days are flexible, potentially needing help any day(s) of the week that works for you, Sundays especially. Pay is $20-$35/day, depending on which day(s) you are interested in sub-contracting. It would be every single week, unless 1-2 week notice is given. Cash payment for previous week on first work day of each week. At least 2 paid training days necessary, payment for training days will occur once contract is signed.

Inspected vehicle, license, proof of insurance, valid registration all necessary. Must be 18 or older.

TEXT me or email me for more contract/general details. Not sure if you're interested or have the availability I need?~message me anyway just incase. This job is relaxing and fun (I think anyway) so long as you are on time and don't feel rushed. Its a great way to get some exercise (and get paid rather than paying for exercise), take in the moonlight, meet some critters that aren't out during the day, and just learn a bit more about beautiful Burlington at such an interesting time of night. I also like to think I'm a pretty cool boss, frequent snacks and a Christmas bonus definitely part of the.
