Female puppy is 9-10 weeks old. Got for free from a breeder so I'm not asking for anything. I cannot care for this puppy anymore, my baby is learning to walk and into EVERYTHING so this is just too much! I have no clue what breed she is, the owner did not show me the mother and the litter all looked different. They have been immunized and I have de-wormed and still have the bottle to continue although I don't think it's necessary. She is almost house trained and knows how to sit already. Text to ask more about Missy who needs someone who can be a good owner ready for this because I obviously bit off more than I can chew =(
 She will come with her Kong, food, bowl, leash/collar
