

Bass player seeking collaborators

I jam on the bass with a kick-ass drummer doing covers. I have my own originals that are heavy blues. I don't sing about love, no wanna be Cobains k I'm sick of working with them. I'm looking for a kick ass lead guitarist to practice covers with my drummer and I, and also any collaborators who want to write heavy blues, light punk, and are not after fame and money, but are after the music.
