

Max was originally surrendered to the pound because he couldn't get along with cats and small dogs. He has very strong prey drive which common with heelers. He will play with toys and even play with a rock if he doesn't have a toy to play with. He is very good with other dogs that are his size or bigger. He is pretty high energy dog so keeping him active would be a good idea. He also likes to sit in the water tub when he is hot so he would love trips to the river or lake where he can play in the water. An active family would be ideal for him.

All dog are adopted on a first come - first served basis.
