

Daphne

Daphne was picked up as a stray so we don't know much about her background other then she was with several other dogs when she was picked up. She is on the shy side until she gets to know you and she still needs to learn that going for walks on a leash is a good thing. She is a little camera shy and we will try to get some different shots of her so everybody can see her better. She is current on her shots, has been spayed and is microchipped. So she is ready to go to her new home today.
