I've got a 2001 Mitsubishi Galant with 148,000 miles. It runs and drives good. Heat and AC work great. Power windows work good. It is a 4 cylinder with an automatic transmission. Gets good gas mileage. I have a clean title for it. No, not rebuilt or salvaged. Recently put new spark plugs and wires in it. We do our own oil changes and maintenance so if there's something wrong we know about we try to get it fixed pretty quick. Also has a new valve cover gasket, ignition coil, and an O2 sensor. No check engine lights. No leaks. Only issue is the glove box handle is.
