PLEASE READ ENTIRE POSTING BEFORE TEXTING...

I am selling my 1981 Toyota celica gt, manual tran 5 speed.
I recently purchased this vehicle, car starts and runs but it has a knock in the 22r engine, ENGINE needs to be replace or fix. car needs to be towed unfortunately i ran out of money and now i have to let go.
car is in original condition except the rims.
has a fair original interior.
this is a great car to restore to new condition, needs cosmetic work.
this car has NO MAJOR RUST, Has a few surface rust spots. am not an expert but i cannot see problems with rust at all. most likely you will not find another car like this.

I am asking $2500 OBO

no reasonable offer will be refuse, but no low balling please.
only serious buyers. please do not wasted my time, if you are not interested just move on to the next listing. i am only able to show the car on saturday and sunday.
