My college friends are having a reunion in Ft Collins over Labor Day and I'd like to go- if you need a car transported there, read on, it could save you a lot of money and hassle. After I graduated from Miami U, I moved to the SF Bay Area and lived in Berkeley for 25 years, before moving back to Cincinnati last year. I have a lot of long distance driving experience- have made the trip from Cincy to California several times; have an absolutely clean DMV, both here in Ohio and in California; am insured, mature and responsible, with a grad degree in public health from UC Berkeley, and an 800+ credit score. In short, I am tailor made for what you need. My friend from Miami will be along with me to help me drive- he is a 20 year veteran teacher in the Anderson Public Schools. another MU grad. You can reach me by email or text to discuss; I'll be happy to answer any questions and provide any documentation you'd like. On the way to Ft. Collins, I will check in with you every 8 hours on the trip so you don't have to worry about it. Sound good? This could save you a lot of grief and money to do it this way. Please let me know.

ps- I am also open to a ride if you are driving there over Labor Day...I can contribute gas and driving.
